

Day 1: Panel discussion

Opening
11:00-11:05	Welcome remark: Adam Weintrit (GMU), Head of AAC House rule from the Secretariat
Panel Discussion
Title of the presentation
Speaker
Moderator: Adam Przybylowski (GMU)
11:10-11:20	Topic A: Online/distance teaching and assessment
	"Challenges for sustainability" Nino Kurshubadze (BSMA)
	"Selected issues of e-learning" Dariusz Barbucha (GMU)
	"Online teaching from the students perspective" Silja Kjaerbo (Student, SIMAC)
11:20 - 11:35	15 mins discussion
11:35 - 11:45	Topic B: Delivery methods of practical aspects (simulator, face-to-face session) at university
	"New Normal in Teaching Simulator Based courses to Seafarers" Abdul Khalique (LJMU)
	"Practical training under Covid-19 restrictions – AMC's experience" Prashant Bhaskar (AMC)
11:45-12:00	15 mins discussion
12:00-12:10	Topic C: Challenges in on-board training programmes
	"Continuation of onboard training in The Netherlands; a joint effort of schools and the association of shipowners" Gerrit van Leunen (MIWB)
	"Facilitating on board training during the pandemic" Michael Pfeiffer (SIMAC)
12:10-12:25	15 mins discussion
12:25-13:00	Topic D: New normal in MET
	"The Future Challenges of MET: A Holistic Approach for Enhancing the Maritime Industry" Mohi Eldin Mohamed Elsayeh (AASTMT)
12:30-12:50	20 mins discussion
Closing
13:00-13:10	Wrap up and closing remark: Takeshi Nakazawa, Executive Director

Day 2: Discussion Forum

Opening
11:00-11:05	Welcome remark: Adam Weintrit (GMU), Head of AAC House rule from the Secretariat
Discussion Forum
Moderator: Adam Przybylowski (GMU)
11:10-11:35	Topic A: Online/distance teaching and assessment
11:35-12:00	Topic B: Delivery methods of practical aspects (simulator, face-to-face session) at university
12:00-12:25	Topic C: Challenges in on-board training programmes
12:25-12:50	Topic D: New normal in MET
Closing
13:00-13:10	Wrap up and closing remark: Takeshi Nakazawa, Executive Director